JERSEY BOOZE JURY DISAGREES

BODY UNABLE TO REACH VERDICT ON BOOZE RING

Dismissed After Being Deadlocked For Fifteen Hours.

Jersey City, Jan. 22.—Judge Egan today dismissed the jury in the Hudson County liquor cases who heard the evidence against ten policemen and two civilians when the jury reported at ten o'clock that it was hopelessly divided.

The jury reported at 10 o'clock this morning. The judge, who had been delayed in reaching court, arrived shortly before the jurors filed into the room. They had been out since 3:07 yesterday afternoon and appeared to be tired.

"Gentlemen, have you reached a verdict?" the judge asked.

Henry A. Lauenstein of Bayonne, N. J., the foreman, replied:

"I am sorry to say Judge, we have not—we were unable to reach a verdict."

The men on trial charged with conspiracy to frustrate justice were: William F. Griffin, of Jersey City, alleged leader of the "bootlegging ring," Harry J. Stearns, councilman and chairman of the police committee of Weehawken; Captain Charles McNamee of the Hudson county boulevard police, two police lieutenants and seven patrolmen.

The jurors looked wan and haggard. When the foreman told the judge that the jurors were "hopelessly disagreed," the judge said:

"Hopelessly? Don't you think that if you went out again for a short time you could arrive at a verdict?"

"No, your honor," the foreman replied.

The foreman continued: "We have disagreed for fifteen hours and we cannot reach a verdict."

"Then under the circumstances and in view of your sincerity, I am compelled to discharge you from further service during the balance of the term of this court," the judge said.

It was understood the jury stood 9 to 3 for conviction when dismissed. The first vote was 8 to 4 for conviction, it was said, and later switched to 9 to 3 and remained thus until they finally decided they were hopelessly deadlocked.

The defendants in the main seemed to accept the disagreement as they would have a verdict of acquittal.

Everyone of the ten police uniforms broke into smiles as did Stearns. Only Griffin, "mystery man" of the trial and characterized by state counsel as "king of the bootleggers" retained the calm that marked him throughout the trial. Not the slightest change of expression passed over his features when the disagreement was announced.

COUPLE HURT ONLY SLIGHTLY AS TRAIN HITS AUTO IN OSBORN

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Grice, of near Osborn, miraculously escaped death and received only slight injuries when the auto truck in which they were riding was completely smashed by Big Four passenger train No. 19, at a crossing one mile south of Osborn Wednesday afternoon. The train was due in Dayton at 12:54 o'clock.

Grice declared after the accident, that his truck was loaded with hay and he experienced difficulty in seeing up and down the tracks. He said that he usually took the precaution to have someone walk to the crossing and warn him of the approach of a locomotive, but advanced on the trucks Wednesday without the usual procedure.

Grice received cuts and bruises about the face and head and Mrs. Grice was severely injured in the leg. A physician's attention was not required.

The hay truck was totally demolished and hay was strewn for several yards about and on the crossing.

HERE IS DOROTHY ELLINGSON WHO KILLED MOTHER FOR LOVE OF "JAZZ"

DOROTHY ELLINGSON

San Francisco, Jan. 22.—"Dorothy Ellingson must serve life!"

This was the demand made today by the prosecution in the case of the daughter of jazz, who sent a death bullet into her mother's head.

"This is a murder case, not a case of ordinary juvenile delinquency," declared Dr. Theresa Meikle, assistant district attorney, selected to prosecute the girl.

"It will not be dealt with as an ordinary juvenile delinquency."

"The people will oppose any continuance. The place for this case is in the criminal courts and the sooner it reaches there the better. We demand a speedy trial."

Dorothy, weak from her ordeal of yesterday, when she appeared in police court and won her first fight in the courts by having her case transferred to the juvenile court, was scheduled to appear today before Judge Judge Murasky, where her fate may be definitely determined.

LETTERS SIGNED BY PET NAME AND TESTIMONY OF NURSE CHANGES COURSE OF DEATH PROBE

Chicago, Jan. 22.—Four letters signed "Darl" and a young graduate nurse who gave William D. Shepherd, foster father of William McClintock and chief beneficiary of the "millionaire orphan's" will, special attention when he was patient at the American hospital—these were the new elements of mystery and sensation which today entered the McClintock death probe.

And it was these decidedly important letters and this girl, it was revealed today, that was responsible for the recent postponement of the inquest which had been expected to bring a formal pronouncement that McClintock died from a typical textbook case of typhoid fever.

The letters have not been made public but they are in the hands of Judge Olson, long time friend of the McClintock family, and chief investigator of the investigation into McClintock's death, almost the very day he was to have married Isabelle Pope.

It is reported they announced Shepherd's "friendship" with the nurse must cease because he "has gone broke."

The nurse, Estelle Eleanor Gehling, admits this much but refuses to discuss them further.

Miss Gehling said she received numerous letters from Shepherd but saved four of them, the last of them which was written in September. This letter, according to her, said in effect that sudden circumstances had developed which would make further friendship between them impossible.

KENNEDY WILL BE BURIED FRIDAY

Funeral services for Forest Kennedy, Cedarville, who died Wednesday from the effects of complications that developed in a wound administered in a suicide attempt, will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the M. C. Nagley residence, Xenia Avenue, Cedarville.

The Rev. W. P. Harriman and the Rev. J. P. White, Cedarville pastors, will officiate at the services and burial will be made in Cedarville. Kennedy fatally shot his wife January 3, before attempting suicide. He was indicted for first degree murder by the grand jury last week.

Kennedy will be buried in Tarbox Cemetery, while his wife was buried in North Cemetery. It is said relatives of the slain woman disapproved of Kennedy's burial by the side of his wife.

AUTOS DAMAGED

A Maxwell touring car owned and driven by Albert Kendrick, colored, East Market Street, and an Overland touring car driven by Carl Littler, this city, were badly damaged in a collision at Third and Whiteman Streets at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Both machines were damaged almost beyond repair but neither driver was injured.

Kendrick was driving north on Whiteman Street and Littler was driving east on Third Street. Kendrick's car was taken to the Baldner Motor Company and Littler's to the Ary Motor Sales for repairs.

CASE TO BE HEARD

Columbus, Jan. 22.—Announcement that the case of Louis W. Josephson, Columbus, accused of embezzling $105,000 while head of the Ohio Industrial Endowment Fund Company, here will be heard in common pleas court within the next few weeks was made today. Common Pleas Judge Scarlett has overruled the motion to quash the indictment. Counsel for Josephson claimed the indictment was not sufficiently specific.

POSTAL SALARY INCREASE BILL BEFORE SENATE

Moses Renews Debate On Amended Rate Raising Provision

Washington, Jan. 22.—The $68,000,000 battle for higher postal wages, to be financed by increased postal rates, was renewed in the senate today when debate was opened on the Moses omnibus bill.

The new measure was called up by Senator Moses, Republican of New Hampshire, its author, to carry out a pledge given postal workers three weeks ago when the administration ranks of the senate voted to sustain President Coolidge's veto of the old postal salary bill. The rate increases would be only temporary, running merely from April 15 to February 15, 1926.

The new rate bill, drafted originally as a compromise, would meet the president's objections to salary increases by providing a means of raising the necessary revenue. With this accomplished, it was said the president will not oppose the salary increases.

In its present form, American newspaper and magazine publishers would make a portion of the increases but the greatest burden would be borne by the parcel post. The new rate schedule would levy slight increases on some kinds of second class mail, used exclusively by the publishers, but would also grant several decreases, especially in outlying zones.

The second class rates were divided into two classes, as in existing law, one affecting the advertising portions of publications and the other applying to the reading sections. The advertising rates would be increased for the first, second and fourth zones, with existing rates continued in the third and fifth zones while reductions would be granted for the sixth, seventh and eighth zone. The reading portion rates would eliminate all preferential classes and place under a flat rate of 1 1/2 cents a pound.

On first class mail, the only increases would apply to postal cards which hereafter would require a two cent stamp.

On third class mail, a weight limitation of four ounces would be placed, although the present rate would continue. This change, however, would drive all heavy parcels into the higher rates of the parcel post.

The burden of the wage increases, incidentally would be borne by the parcel post. Although existing rates would continue, a service of two cents would be levied on all parcels with additional excess rates on parcels weighing over five pounds.

A new "expedited delivery" service would be instituted in the parcel post—similar to the special delivery of first class mail—at cost of 25 cents per package. With the other increases it was expected the parcel post would yield up $30,000,000 additional income under the new rates.

About $12,000,000 new revenue would be raised by higher rates on all the special services such as money orders, postal insurance and C. O. D. service.

XENIA ON SECOND PREFERENTIAL LIST FOR ERECTION OF NEW GUARD ARMORIES IN 1925

Xenia is on the second preferential list of cities in the state, compiled out of a list of thirteen cities and towns where national guard organizations are housed unsatisfactorily at present, drawn up at a meeting in Columbus, Wednesday, of officers of the Ohio National Guard, seeking an amendment to the state armory law.

The meeting, presided over by Major General Benson W. Hough, was attended by division, brigade and regimental commanders. The officers attending the meeting gave unanimous approval to the proposed amendment of the state armory law, to be submitted to the present general assembly, which gives the adjutant general wider scope.

The two preferential lists of cities consists of six or seven names of cities and towns, which will be given preference with respect to the future armory program. It is thought possible that one or two cities or towns of the first group may be included this year.

The first preferential list is composed of Berea, Findlay, Greenfield, Springfield, Willoughby and Cincinnati and in the second, Xenia, Barberton, Lakewood, Middletown, Alliance, Mount Vernon and Greenville.

The bill, if passed, will provide for the expenditure of not to exceed $45,000 for one and $20,000 for each additional organization quartered in an armory; also $60,000 for one and $25,000 additional for cavalry and artillery

Hope To Find Pay Dirt In Baseball Scandal Probe

By DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, Jan. 22.—Regardless of lamentations to the contrary, the local district attorney's office expects to strike pay dirt somewhere in its impending excavations in and around the Dolan-O'Connell scandal which rocked the baseball world last October.

Many seem to think that no additional light will be thrown on the situation by an official inquiry, that District Attorney Joab Banton will find his hands tied just as securely as were those of Judge Landis when the original probe was instituted. It is evident that the district attorney's office does not concur. It knows what it can do with witnesses when they are placed under oath and asked questions that require more illuminating answers than the mere affirmative or negative, as the case may be.

It, as some people seem to feel, Frank Frisch, Ross Young and George Kelly have guilty knowledge of O'Connell's attempt to bribe Heine Sand, the district attorney's office will be sufficiently inquisitive to discover just what these men know, if anything.

In this respect, local officials will find conditions for an inquiry far more favorable than did Landis. The judge could go so far and no farther. He could not place his witnesses under oath and if all of them saw fit to give the "don't remember" reply to his questions, he could have done nothing about it, except to oust those concerned from baseball. But that would have left the case in a more opaque condition than it is.

Of course, if nothing new is uncovered, O'Connell will be the only victim. On his own admission, he can be sent to jail and plastered with a heavy fine. This is a highly undesirable outcome. Baseball doesn't want it, the fans do not want it and I think I take no undue liberty in answering for O'Connell himself. He doesn't want it.

PROBE OF XENIA INSTITUTION TO START IN 10 DAYS

Allege High Prices Paid For Commodities at Home Here

Columbus, Jan. 22.—Investigation of conditions at the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans Home at Xenia, will center largely on charges of immorality, involving two officials connected with the institution, it was revealed here today.

The probe will get under way February 6 at Xenia, Senator L. T. Marshall announced, and will continue during recesses of the legislature so that it will not delay legislative business. Senator Marshall conferred with Attorney General Crabbe relative to legal aid the latter's department is directed to furnish the probers.

The investigation is directed against administration of the Home by Supt. Sylvius Garver. His wife, Mrs. Anna Noble Garver, is chief matron.

It was revealed today by Senator Marshall that Garver was recently allowed an opportunity to resign before the probe was instituted but took no advantage of the offer.

The probe will not be halted now, even if Garver should resign, Senator Marshall declared.

"Conditions at the home have been a stench in the public's nostrils for some time," he declared, "and I propose that there shall be a cleanup."

While graft charges are said to be included in the matters which will be sifted by the probers it was revealed that conditions are not serious in that regard.

"There are 800 children at the Home and it is the state's duty to educate them to useful citizenship. This cannot be done under such conditions now existing and we propose to correct these conditions," declared Senator Marshall.

Charges of graft, general mismanagement, mistreatment of inmates and immorality will be investigated by the special senate committee that will probe conditions at the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home here it was announced in Columbus.

Plans for the probe recommended by Governor Vic Donahey were to go forward in the state senate Thursday and the committee investigation is expected to start within ten days. Charges contained in the report of Col. L. S. Connolly, Cleveland, Major Gen. Benson W. Hough, Cincinnati and Captain George W. Tool, Columbus, Ohio National Guard investigators, will be made the basis of the probe, it is said.

Although the details of these charges are being withheld, they are said to include complaints that supplies had been purchased for the institution at high prices exclusively from a Xenia dealer, including ice and fruit; that in some cases the same load of ice or same crate of fruit has been purchased two or three times; that two boys at the home were mistreated by an instructor and that certain employees at the institution have been illegally discharged as the result of "internal politics." Affidavits making these allegations are said to be in the hands of the investigators.

The resolution of the senate ordering the investigation authorizes the hearings to be held either in Columbus or Xenia, but it is expected that most of the evidence will be heard at the institution in this city. The resolution authorizes the committee to call upon the attorney general's office for legal counsel, compel presence of witnesses and examine all records of the institution from which information may be obtained.

The committee headed by Senator L. T. Marshall of this city, includes Senators Adair, Wooster, Waitt, Cleveland, Longhead, Cincinnati and Lauby of Akron. Laurence M. Benedict, Columbus newspaper correspondent, said in his account Thursday: "Complaints regarding conditions at the Xenia Home have been made to every governor in the last fifteen years, but Governor Donahey is the first to ask for an investigation. The governor said yesterday in a message to the senate that in his opinion, based on allegations made to him, a thorough probe was needed."

Sylvius Garver, Republican, an appointee of former Governor Harry L. Davis, said Wednesday he welcomed an investigation to clear the charges. Mr. Garver has been head of the institution four years and his wife, who is chief matron, is an ex-pupil of the institution.

MEN HELD IN SPRINGFIELD IDENTIFIED AS SLAYERS OF HILLSBORO SURVEYOR

Youths Are John and Dan Boggs, Sons of Jackson, Ohio, Lumber Man—Bowersville Residents Held Identify Pair—Deny Guilt.

Jackson, O., Jan. 21.—John Boggs, 24, and his brother Dan Boggs, 21, held at Springfield, as suspects in the murder of Harry T. McGill, of Hillsboro, are sons of Augustus A. Boggs, former wealthy lumberman of this city.

The elder Boggs, who recently met financial reverses, is critically ill at his home here and has not been informed of the charge lodged against his sons.

"Frank and Donald Barnes, of Cleveland," held in Springfield, were positively identified Wednesday by four citizens of Hillsboro, as the pair of highwaymen who shot and instantly killed Harry T. McGill, deputy surveyor of Highland County and seriously wounded E. W. Lemon.

organizations equipped with horses. The law covering this phase of armory construction now is general.

No definite order or preference was adopted for towns and cities in these two lists and in case any are picked this year it will be at the discretion of Adjutant General Frank D. Henderson.

About a year ago a secondary preferential list containing the names of Ravenna, Canton, Lima, Chillicothe, Washington C. H., and Mansfield in the order named was recommended by the senior board.

This list now becomes first preference. Findlay received consideration a year ago and is receiving reconsideration at the present, it is said.

RADIO OPERATORS SHOULD WATCH FOR SIGNALS SATURDAY

Philadelphia, January 22—In order that the test from Station WIP, Gimbel Brothers, on Saturday, January 24, during the eclipse, may be an aid to the perfection of broadcasting, radio fans all over the country are asked to tune their receivers to 509 meters and note carefully just how the signals are received.

Beginning promptly at 7 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, Station WIP will "go on the air" with a program of orchestral music. During this program, one minute will be devoted to the broadcast of a buzzer signal. The buzzer note will be constant, and fans are asked to note whether it varies, as they receive it. This will determine the effect of the Solar Eclipse on the much discussed "Fading Problem."

Station 2LO, at London, England, will begin its broadcast on 365 meters at 7:15 a.m., Eastern Standard Time. The WIP-2LO schedule for the test is:

7:00 to 7:15—WIP.
7:15 to 7:30—2LO.
7:30 to 7:45—WIP.
7:45 to 8:00—2LO.
8:00 to 8:15—WIP.
8:15 to 8:30—2LO.
8:30 to 8:45—WIP.
8:45 to 9:00—2LO.
9:00 to 9:15—WIP.
9:15 to 9:30—2LO.

Tune your sets to WIP's wave length during the time set for their broadcast. Note accurately any peculiarity of transmission, and write WIP of your report. Tune in for 2LO during the time set for their broadcast. If you are successful in receiving their signals, notify Station WIP.

Pay particular attention to the Buzzer Test from Station WIP. This will be given for one minute of each fifteen minute section. It will be easily audible and will give a fine check-up on the transmission.

Its Greatest Values Cannot Be Copied

The Chassis Is Patented

As its Coach Body has changed the whole trend to closed cars

So Essex Chassis likewise forecasts the mechanical design of the future

Essex provides stability without unnecessary weight. It has economy without sacrifice of performance. It is low priced without disappointment in looks or reliability.

It is more than up-to-date in design. It is in advance of any car with which its price can be compared.

It is built on the Super-Six principle, by Hudson workmen in the Hudson shops.

In quality Hudson and Essex are alike. The patents which make the Super-Six the most enduring, smoothest motor and give it all advantages sought in eight cylinders, prevent any from copying its chassis as has been so generally done in copying the Coach body.

THE FURNACE MYSTERY

Prosecutor King of Franklin County, has perseverance to commend him, if no other quality.

The prosecutor has announced that another grand jury will be given new evidence in the famous Bexley mystery, in which the body of the wife of the Rev. C. V. Sheatsley was found burned up in the furnace of their home.

If the prosecutor has new evidence of damaging quality, which it may be hoped that he has in order to clear this most baffling of mysteries, then he should be given encouragement in this latest effort to bring the solution to the surface.

If, however, the prosecutor is reviving the case for publicity purposes with no evidence of a tangible quantity on which a grand jury may act, he deserves censor. Unless facts are in his possession indicating a solution, it were better that the Bexley mystery remain so and be forgotten about as quickly as possible.

ECLIPSE

The sun and moon are going to connive Saturday morning, to show the old world something new in the way of astronomical wonders.

Science tells us that in certain parts of the United States, the light from the sun will be totally eclipsed so that cities are instructing the use of street lights, and farmers are planning to light up hen houses artificially to prevent the chickens from going to bed.

Scientists, much interested in the feature act of heavens, are urging all who are situated advantageously, geographically speaking, to be sure to look for the eclipse. Now then, it is truly wonderful that the sun and moon, by a peculiar coincidence in their positions in space, should come into a position that would result in the eclipse of one.

But to our rather unscientific mind, the most wonderful thing is that science is not only able to foretell this eclipse but to tell to the second when it will occur, and to the inch what part, and how much of the earth's surface will be shadowed.

We think the scientist, pointing out the wonder he has prophesied, is deserving of some of this attention himself.

LIFE'S CHAIN

Nearly all basic problems are as "old as the hills."

A German scientist finds in an Egyptian tomb a divorce decree that was granted 2,000 years ago. It is the oldest known.

In those days they also had high cost of living, spendthrift governments and heavy taxes.

Life is a theatrical performance whose plot never changes. One generation of actors succeeds another in an endless chain. The play itself goes on, repeating over and over. Existence would become very monotonous if we lived several centuries.

Probably we should find ourselves back-tracking over the grounds. Ennui would come on and we would sigh for something new. Too great length of life would not be good.

In this connection we recall a short story we read some years ago. There was a man who became convinced that he was living his life around in a circle, to the office in the morning, back home at night, and to the same places at other times. He announced that he was going to quit it, and went away. He was gone for years, but the seed he had sown had found fertile soil in the mind of a nephew, we believe it was. So one day, the young man set out to remove his life from the circle. He went to South America. The first sound that greeted him when he reached the distant shores was that of a screechy, wheezy steam piano. He went to see what it meant, the sound was so familiar, and there in that far away land he found his relative, who had started out years before to get himself out of the circle, running a merry go round.

So, as we go around the years—or as the years go around for us—we need to make them as cheerful and fruitful as possible where we are.—Tampa Times.

Still, let's hope for the best. The auto driver may not give any more attention to the cross-word stockings than to the ordinary variety.—Marion, O., Star.

A close observer says that girls who "interfere" should not wear light hose.—Newark, O., American-Tribune.

Imagine the number of runaways there would have been had the girls worn short skirts and plaid stockings in the old days when the horse was still supreme.—Columbus, O., Dispatch.

THE LAST THING AT NIGHT

I may forget to wind the clock or lock the kitchen door,
And I may go to bed and leave my books upon the floor,
Or when I come in very late and overtired, I may Neglect to turn the porch light off until the following day.
But there's one thing I always make, the last thing every night
I tip-toe to the children's room to see that they're all right!

I never fail to journey there. It seems

Men! Don't Come Home
Fagged Out by
Hard Work

DOCTORS say that in an enormous number of cases when men come home physically and mentally "all in," nervous and cranky, the real cause is not hard work, but thin, pale, watery blood, deficient in strength-giving iron. Once this iron is restored to the blood it is often astonishing how quickly these men gain new strength, nerve force and endurance.

But be sure the iron you take is organic iron—Nuxated Iron—and not the old-fashioned liquid medicines and pills made by the action of powerful acids on ordinary mineral iron. Nuxated Iron is a natural organic iron, like spinach and lentils. Does not injure teeth nor disturb the stomach. So remarkable are the effects of Nuxated Iron that men and women have often increased their strength, energy, and endurance in only two weeks' time. Money back if not delighted. But make certain you get genuine guaranteed Nuxated Iron tablets with the letters N I on every tablet. At all

how seems to me

I can't go to sleep myself, unless

I've been to see

That pair of youngsters safely tucked

under their little beds

And placed their wandering pillows

once again beneath their heads.

And straightened out their little forms and chuckled with delight

To hear them sleepily proclaim that they're all right.

I've found them tangled in their sheets, I've found them wrong

way to.

There's nothing in their sleep, it seems, those youngsters will not do;

I've found their bedclothes on the floor. I've caught them clinging

fast

To books and dolls with which they'd played when sleep had come at last;

And looking down on them I've thought; life holds no fairer

sight

Than sleeping little youngsters showing signs that they're all right.

I lift their little heavy forms and straighten out their arms.

And sometimes stand admiringly

at their charms;

I take them up and put them down

and rearrange their beds

And always bend to kiss their cheeks

and stroke their curly heads;

Then knowing they are snug and warm I switch away the light

And say: "I'm ready now to sleep, for

they're all right!"

The Cincinnati papers continue to talk of a new gas line from the West Virginia field to pass through Xenia. The masquerade ball at Schmidt's Hall Monday night proved to be quite an enjoyable event.

The unfringed lamp shade is becoming more and more popular. I refer merely to table lamps not to floor lamps. For the fringed floor lamp shade is still in favor.

I have been making a study of this new vogue for the unfringed shade. I believe that my readers will like to have me describe some of the shade-edgings which interior decorators are using in place of fringe. In each of the following cases the wire shade frame was covered with georgette of some soft color, shirred on, and the edging either matched or harmonized with the georgette.

1. A length of old-fashioned picot-edged, watered-silk ribbon, an inch wide, had been used at the bottom of the shade. It was sewed to the shirred georgette covering but extended one-half inch below it. It was put on plain, not gathered.

2. A fancy tapestry ribbon, two inches wide, had been used very much as the picot-edged ribbon described above, except that in this case the ribbon hung down fully an inch below the frame and its lower edge was wired to hold it taut. This ribbon edging was also straight-not gathered.

3. Heavy, inch-wide gold insertion with rather large holes was sewed onto black velvet ribbon of the same width and then dropped below the shade making a straight band completely around it. Its own weight held it taut without wiring.

4. A bedroom lamp shade had a ruffle of georgette, hanging below the shirred georgette frame-covered and matching the shirred part. The lower edge of this three-inch wide ruffle had been finished with a picot. Its gathering thread at the top was covered with narrow gold braid.

5. An inch-wide strip of silk which matched the shirred georgette covering had been pinked at the lower edge

Now is the Critical Time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will Help You Safely Through Convoy, Ohio.—"During the Change of Life I was weak and run-down and could hardly do my work. By reading your advertisements I found out about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has straightened me right out and made me feel like a new woman. By the time I had taken eight bottles I was well and could do my housework on the farm without trouble. I recommended it to my daughter-in-law after her second baby was born and it did her a wonderful lot of good. I told her to try it and if it didn't help her I would pay for it, and before she had taken one bottle she said to me, 'You won't have to pay for it! It is helping me wonderfully!' And she took three bottles of it. You can use my testimonial if you wish."—Mrs. ELSIE ACKERMAN, Convoy, Ohio.

Consider carefully Mrs. Ackerman's letter. Her experience ought to help you. She tells of the trials of middle age and the wonderful results she obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Today's Talks

EYES WE SEE NOT

We sometimes think that we are alone. But we are never alone.

The absent eyes of scores of those who love us or who are interested in us are always looking our way. History has eyes. Every noble element in life which is able to inspire us to take better heart has eyes.

In our loneliest moments eyes from a thousand sources look down upon us. We can keep nothing from our better selves.

Then there is "God, who never rests or wearies," who looks with His gentle and kindly eyes upon every moment in which we breathe and have our being.

In this library where I write are three vacant chairs. Five cases filled with books and three tables all with laps overburdened with books—and each chair with a loved friend to me in my silent thoughts, with each book having eyes which I see not. Each night that I spend here is filled with beautiful happiness because some new and invisible friend drops in to fill the vacant chairs.

Many times I smile at some unseen and unknown Letter Friend who has so inspired me by some kindly, thoughtful expression of praise and appreciation.

I am very certain that most of my sins and mistakes are washed clean by the look from eyes that I see not.

Distant and unseeing eyes are always so very forgiving, so very tolerant and kind.

To my left I see a brown covered book containing the sweet and bubbling humor of a friend with whom I used to sit, talk and love the hours away. For years now the heart of the earth has had to love his silent soul, but his eyes twinkle to me tonight as I write and his strong and sterling self returns to be with me again.

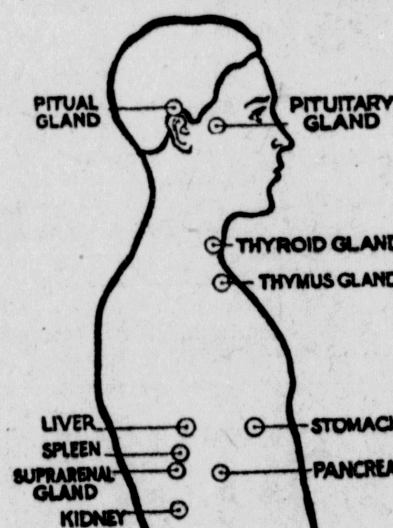

Eyes we see not. How scattered they are! But we do better and are so much braver as we realize that they follow us wherever we go and in all that we do.

Dr. Bailey Sees Way
To Restore Youth

(From Washington, D. C. dispatch to New York Telegram and Mail)

"In and around these glands" says Dr. Bailey to medical scientists of American Chemical Society, "must center future efforts toward human rejuvenation—a goal for which the world has sought and one which now seems to be truly realized."

"Rejuvenation means more today than any other subject that can concern a man or woman," says Dr. William T. Bailey, director of the American endocrine (gland) laboratories. "The wrinkled face, the drawn skin, the dull eye, the listless gait, the faulty memory, the aching body, the destructive effects of sterility, all spell imperfect endocrine performance."

How Kath Renews Your Glands:
Gives Body New Lease of Life

When the worn-out, exhausted glands of your body cause you to slow up, to age before your time, and to quit functioning normally, you can get a supply of new gland matter in the form of Kath. Kath is the wonderful new gland substance which brings back the feeling and vigor of youth in a short time. All you have to do is to get a bottle of Kath from the druggists mentioned below and follow the simple directions. If you are not completely rejuvenated, if you do not feel YEARS YOUNGER, if your nerves, your walk, your hands, your voice, don't become steadier, if YOU DON'T FEEL 100% BETTER ALL OVER after taking the Kath gland treatment for a month, then go back and get every penny of your money. Kath is based on the work of some of the biggest doctors and scientists, and has put a new lease of life into the bodies of many a man and woman. The cost of Kath is $1.25 for a full treatment.

DARLINGTON AIDS POST DEDICATION

Captain Charles L. Darlington, this city, was included in the nearly 100 members from the southwestern Ohio district of the state American Legion organization who took part in the dedication of the new Middletown Post, American Legion headquarters, at Middletown Wednesday.

It was said Wednesday that for the first time, all of the present and past state legion officials met in a body. Captain Darlington was formerly state commander of the American Legion.

State Commander John R. McQuigg, made the dedication address at the new headquarters Tuesday night before all of the attending legionnaires and sounded the interest of the state department in acquiring the new Middletown Post. Other speeches were also made.

Mrs. Otto Hornick will entertain the Rebekah Thimble Club at her home on East Third Street, Tuesday afternoon, January 27, at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Flora Z. Crumrine of Jeffersonville, was the guest of her niece, Mrs. Harlan Stevens, of this city, Wednesday.

(RUNNING ACROSS)

Word 4. A bright metal that looks something like gold.
Word 5. A city in Germany where the famous Krupp gun factory is located.

(RUNNING DOWN)
Word 1. What you eat your meals on.
Word 2. Something green that the cows like to eat.
Word 3. What violinists put on their bows.

YESTERDAY'S JUNIOR PUZZLE ANSWER

You Can Prevent Chaps

By a regular use of

Lemon
Cocoa Butter

Wasn't it only the other day you said "This weather is bad for the hands?" Well, you needn't let that worry you.

Lemon juice, as you know, is slightly astringent and splendid for the treatment of roughness; the cocoa butter is, of course, the best of all tissue builders. Combined they make the best possible skin treatment.

This lotion is also an excellent skin bleach.

THE RECORD

Of Ohio Building, Loan and Savings Companies

Total assets now nearing One Billion dollars ---the result of systematic saving by a million thrifty Ohioans.

One hundred thousand Ohio families put into homes of their own during the last two years.

Provided employment during 1924 for several hundred thousand workmen engaged in the building industry.

Put millions of dollars into circulation for the benefit of the manufacturer, the merchant, the professional man, the laboring man and the farmer.

Save Where Your Money Is Safe

This is National Thrift Week. It is also the beginning of a new year. Plan to lay away something regularly during 1925. Save with a building, loan and savings company. Long experience has proven that money placed with these institutions has been ready when needed—dollar for dollar with accrued earnings.

Building, loan and savings companies cannot speculate with their funds. The law permits them to loan only on first mortgage security on real estate. They are under strict state supervision; are examined regularly by state examiners; their officers are bonded and their funds are protected by various forms of insurance.

Building, loan and savings company dollars are kept in this community. They create prosperity for the local business man; the local working man and the neighboring farmer. These institutions pay a return, which, in the estimation of their officers, is the highest that can be paid compatible with absolute safety.

THRIFT DISPLAYED BY PRIZE WINNER

The following story is typical of the indications of the effectiveness of the teaching of thrift now being done in the city schools, it is said.

Russell Barr, a student of Central Junior High School was sent up town on an errand. He met a friend near Moser's Shoe Store, who suggested to him to look at the display of pennies in the window. Russell had read about the prize of a ten dollar gold piece offered to the one who could guess the nearest number of pennies. The ten dollar gold piece was won by Russell on his guess of 3,313 pennies.

The gold piece was brought to school by the proud winner and deposited in the school savings bank. Since the schools are now conducting a savings contest Russell was happy to help his school, Junior High, by depositing his prize.

Easy Way to Break Severest Cough

No matter how long you have had a persistent, weakening cough—no matter how many remedies you have tried without success—you can usually get relief instantly, and often relieve the entire cough condition in 24 hours, by a very simple method. The method is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take one teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The prompt relief seems almost magical, and the quickness with which the whole cough condition disappears is often simply amazing. There is nothing better for coughs, chest colds, bronchitis, bronchial asthma, hoarseness and almost every throat irritation. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. On sale at all good druggists. Ask for

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

COUGHS OR COLDS BANISHED BY NEW MEDICINAL FOOD

To be rid of coughs and colds once and for all, strike at the cause. Many local people are banishing all this suffering and annoyance by taking a new medicinal food called Coco Cod, pure Norwegian cod liver oil with the taste of rich cocoa.

Doctors are prescribing Coco Cod for young and old who are run-down, nervous and lacking in vital energy. Such folks, they contend, are under-nourished—liable to fall easy prey to coughs, colds or more serious ailments such as pneumonia, influenza, asthma.

Coco Cod arms you with overwhelming energy and vital force that enables you to defy common ills. It sends rich, red blood tingling through your veins. You feel and act years younger because you're alive in every fibre.

Children and adults who cannot take ordinary cod liver oil, find Coco Cod delightful and thrive on it.

Good druggists everywhere have Coco Cod, the new, easy-to-take cod liver oil with the rich cocoa taste. Adv.

Many Xenia Folks Are Showing How to Avoid Needless Suffering.

There's nothing more annoying than kidney weakness or inability to properly control the kidney secretions. Night and day alike, the sufferer is tormented and what with the burning and scalding, the attendant backache, headache and dizziness, life is indeed a burden. Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys—have brought peace and comfort to many Xenia people. Profit by this Xenia resident's experience:

E. L. Richards, prop. barber shop, 514 W. Second St., says: "My back was sore and ached constantly. Mornings my back and shoulders were so lame and stiff, I could hardly move. My back was weak and it was hard to stand any length of time. When I stooped I got sharp pain through my back. I had to get up several times at night to pass the kidney secretions. Doan's Pills relieved me of the pains in my back and my kidneys became normal."

LUCKY STRIKE

TOASTED

Facts About Taxes on Cigarettes

TO the general public, we believe it will be surprising to learn that nearly half of what they pay for cigarettes goes to the government for taxes.

The internal revenue stamp on a package of twenty Lucky Strike cigarettes costs you six cents. On a 75c tin of one hundred the revenue stamp costs you thirty cents.

So nearly one-half of what you pay for cigarettes is spent by you for taxes.

This is certainly the heaviest tax on an article of daily and universal consumption.

The Tobacco Industry and Taxes

The aggregate tax paid by the tobacco business is with one exception, income taxes, the largest item of internal revenue the federal government receives. Last (fiscal) year it amounted to $309,014,050.84.

Of this enormous amount of money the cigarette industry paid $182,715,735.93, or nearly two-thirds of the total tax paid by the entire tobacco business.

We believe you will appreciate that when nearly fifty cents of every dollar paid by you for cigarettes goes to the government, you must receive in cigarettes a value in return for your money that is rarely given in any commodity.

That the public appreciates this great value is shown by the enormous increase in the consumption of cigarettes.

Our reasons for this tax free offer

We know this offer induces men to try Lucky Strikes—it "Wins More Friends."

We know that a large percentage of those who get acquainted with Lucky Strikes adopt them.

This isn't philanthropy nor propaganda—just good business, as you'll agree.

The offer is limited. We cannot afford to keep it up.

We make it generous, to attract attention.

Super-quality

Only by immense volume can we produce such an aristocratic cigarette as Lucky Strike at such a democratic price.

Its quality is supreme because it has that costly extra process, toasting, which improves the flavor and adds to the taste of even the finest tobaccos that are used in Lucky Strikes.

Cleanliness and Care in Manufacture

Every Lucky Strike factory is a model of sanitation. Read how Alfred W. McCann, the noted food expert, describes one of our factories: "White walls and ceilings, floors as clean as freshly chiseled marble, cutting machines and wrapping machines that take away from the human hand all detail and leave nothing to the human supervision but the watchfulness of trained eyes."

We know a trial will make you a permanent customer of ours.

SEVEN INJURED AS BOB SLED SKIDS AT SPRING VALLEY

Arnold Drewes, principal of Spring Valley High School, is in McClellan Hospital, this city, with a fractured left leg and suffering from severe bruises and several young people of Spring Valley are nursing painful injuries, as the result of a coasting accident, in Spring Valley, Wednesday night.

The injured people were members of a coasting party on the hill on Cincinnati Pike, in Spring Valley. About ten persons were coasting on the bob-sled, guided by Ernest Kneeb. The coasting began at the cemetery at the top of the hill and the parties would coast to the railroad tracks.

It is thought that the party on the bob-sled was too heavy to guide the sled properly, and when midway down the hill, at a turn in the road, the sled skidded off the path and struck an iron railing and stone steps in front of Harlan Bargley's home.

Mr. Drewes' injury proved to be the most serious. Robert Crites, 10, had his nose crushed and his face badly cut and bruised. Ernest Reeves' foot was crushed when the sled struck the railing. Other injured persons were Earl Querey, face cut; Joe LaSprance, face cut; Leon Mills, foot and face cut; and Lawrence Vandeman, face badly scratched.

INTERNATIONAL TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION BUYS MAGNIFICENT INDIANAPOLIS RESIDENCE FOR NEW HEADQUARTERS BUILDING

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22—Stately halls and spacious drawing rooms, wont to witness the swank and magnificence of Hoosierdom's most exclusive society affairs soon will resound to the clatter of typewriters and adding machines grinding out the business of a leading trade union.

It was announced today that the palatial Murdock home in the fashionable North Meridian Street district will become headquarters of the International Typographical Union, April 1. Purchase of the home, made famous locally by its occupation at different times by two of Indiana's richest families, was effected recently by the union. It was sold by heirs of the late Samuel T. Murdock, multimillionaire interurban magnate and manufacturer.

The purchase price was not made public, but it was said the building could not be duplicated on land of such value at a total cost of less than $500,000.

Built by Frank Van Camp, of the wealthy canning industry family, in 1906, the home has since been included in all sight-seeing tours of Indianapolis as one of the city's most beautiful estates. It is surrounded by landscaped grounds, comprising four and one-half acres and including a sunken garden. The district in which it is located recently was designated for business purposes by the city planning commission.

The building is of limestone with massive walls and a wide, uncovered stone veranda in the Italian style reaches along two sides. The solid mahogany woodwork of the interior was carved by artists from Switzerland, imported by Mr. Van Camp to do the work to his liking. The great center hall of the home will be used by the union as its reception room. More than thirty-five rooms will be included in the plans for altering the residence for business use.

Officials of the union said they were compelled to seek new quarters by the expansion of the organization's business and the high rental rates prevailing in the business district. The new headquarters will afford greater room at less cost and also offers a sound investment they said. Members of the union's executive council, who consummated the purchase, were: James M. Lynch, president; J. W. Hays, secretary-treasurer; Seth R. Brown, first vice-president; Austin Hewson, second vice-president; Charles N. Smith and Hugo Miller.

The Typographical Union is one of the wealthiest trade unions and has about $5,000,000 of its funds invested in bonds. It also has a $3,500,000 investment in the Union Printers' Home at Colorado Springs, Colo., to which an extensive addition was made last year.

"It has been a policy of the Typographical Union to be very conservative in the investment of union funds," said Mr. Lynch. "For that reason the organization has confined itself to purchase of government and municipal bonds in the past. In this case, however, it became necessary to acquire our own headquarters property or suffer a loss through exorbitant rent. We bought at a bargain and I am reliably advised that our new investment will prove one of the most profitable we have ever had. The investment can be reduced to a comparatively small sum at any by sale of surplus land."

Beside its trade regulation activities and the Union Printers' Home, the union maintains an old-age pension system, mortuary benefits and a

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Mentho-Sulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.

department of apprentice education, all of which are administered at headquarters.

A library of books on printing and related subjects will be accumulated after the new headquarters are opened.

The International Typographical Union, officials say, is the development of an organization idea nearly as old as the printing art itself. Guilds were formed by the early printers of the fifteenth century and similar societies have existed practically continuously since, each having for its smallest unit, the "chapel" of each printing shop. The National Typographical Union was organized at a convention in Cincinnati, O., in 1852, and the name was changed to International Typographical Union of North America in 1869. Headquarters have been maintained in Indianapolis since 1888.

ECONOMIC ANALYSIS FOR TRADE BENEFIT STARTED UNDERWAY

Washington, Jan. 22—A nationwide economic analysis for the benefit of domestic trade has been launched by the department of commerce.

This was announced today by A. Health Onthank, chief of the domestic commerce division, who said that the first survey in progress centers in Philadelphia, while the second will include the markets of Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama and Florida.

Later in the year, territory surrounding the big centers of population will be analyzed. The entire program will embrace New England, New York, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, New Orleans, the southwest, San Francisco and Seattle districts.

"The general aim of the department is to put all wholesale and retail business on a scientific basis and to furnish business men with accurate information as to their potential markets and the types of commodities required in these markets," Onthank told International News Service. "The result will be a big cut in marketing costs, shorter hauls, for freight, quicker delivery of goods, more satisfactory service and lower prices to the consumer and a reduction in transportation congestion at the rush seasons."

Tells you there is danger ahead. A health bladder does not act at night.

J. H. Horton, W. Graham, Va., says: "I had to get up seven or eight times at night for forty years. I thought it was my age. After taking Lithiated Buchu a short time, I am alright." Lithiated Buchu cleanses the bladder as Epsom Salts do the bowels, thereby relieving irritation, driving out foreign matter and neutralizing excessive acids. These are the causes of unnatural action of the bladder at night. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) is not a cheap medicine. The tablets cost 2 cents each. BRINGING UP FATHER

The Husband Tamer

by VIOLET DARE

AUTHOR OF "The Half-Time Wife," "The Luxury of Love" etc.

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED

PATRICIA CLEVE has become estranged from her husband, ANDREW CLEVE, who seems to feel that his young wife exists only to help entertain his business friends. He goes abroad, after Patricia has insisted that she will live differently or leave him. She visits her sister.

CAROL WILLOUGHBY, and finds herself enrolled to help Carol's husband.

KEITH WILLOUGHBY, in his efforts to interest

GREGORY HEWITT, a famous financier, in his affairs. Hewitt falls in love with Patricia, and for Keith's sake she cannot refuse to join a western camping trip arranged by him.

TODAY'S INSTALMENT

XLI—HER HUSBAND'S ULTIMATUM

THE next few days Patricia was only vaguely conscious of what was going on around her. She would hear scraps of whispered consultations and then she would be moved—by wagon, by motor finally by train. There was no pain; only a sort of numbness and heaviness, broken occasionally by the sympathetic flutterings of Carol and the tender solicitude of Hewitt.

VIOLET DARE

But the doctor never allowed them around her long, saying the least disturbance seemed to make her nervous, and Pat couldn't help smiling as she realized how she took advantage of this chance to be alone.

A day out of Chicago she found that she was able to sit up and take an interest in the scenes they were passing through. The doctor let the others come and sit with her while in her drawing room, and to celebrate the occasion Hewitt telegraphed ahead and had flowers awaiting Pat at every stop of any importance.

"I'll wager they never heard of orchids in Abbottville," Keith insisted, "until Hewitt ordered them."

"Thought there must be a royal funeral on the train," Hewitt added laughingly, "so the whole town came down to get a peek at it."

Patricia liked the way he disclaimed all honor of drawing a crowd of curious people to the station to see him and his magnificent private car. She liked many things about him; how unfortunate that she did not love him.

She thought a great deal about Andrew during that trip. She couldn't give him up, and yet she couldn't go back to things as they were. She wished that there were some way that she could send a message to him. If he only knew of her accident he would come to her. And yet she couldn't ask Hewitt to do it for her. He had done so much for her—and he believed, of course, that she and Andrew were hopelessly estranged.

She wondered a few days later as she languidly surveyed the rooftops from the sun parlor of the hospital where she had been taken if that weren't true! Each day when Carol came she looked up hopefully, but there was no word from Andrew.

Finally a cablegram came, and Patricia's fingers shook as she opened it. Eagerly she read, "Returning Berengaria tenth, meet me New York," and sunk back into the pillows, her eyes wet with tears.

Not a word of endearment from him—and Andrew wasn't a man to economize just because of a heavy cable rate. No, he was giving her orders to return. This was his ultimatum, she saw clearly enough; she could come back now to things as they were, or stay away.

"What does it say?" Carol broke in on her muddled train of thought to ask. "Can't I send an answer for you? Wait a minute and I'll get a pencil and paper and take it down. Did Andrew get my cablegram about your accident? I sent one to his hotel in London," she babbled on as unconcernedly as though her sister's house were not falling down on her head, with this cablegram the keystone that would hold it up or let it crash.

"Just cable that I cannot meet him in New York," Pat instructed her, "and don't say why. I'll explain everything in a letter so that he will get it on his arrival."

"But, Patricia, what are you going to do? You don't seem very happy married to Andrew, and yet I don't believe you really want to marry Gregory Hewitt? Forgive me for intruding, but I would so like to help. Keith and I are so happy that I just cannot bear to think—"

With a wry smile Pat surveyed Carol transformed from the little sparrow of a few weeks before to a modish, alert looking girl. Keith was attentive to her nowadays. Why was it she could influence other men so much and yet not her own husband.

And as Carol left her, Pat sunk back in the pillows of her wheelchair, prayerfully thanking Providence that she was physically unable to get up and go to meet Andrew. For she knew that it was an unwise thing to do—and yet she wanted so much to go.

JERSEY BOOZE JURY DISAGREES

BODY UNABLE TO REACH VERDICT ON BOOZE RING

Dismissed After Being
Deadlocked For Fifteen Hours.

Jersey City, Jan. 22.—Judge Egan today dismissed the jury in the Hudson County liquor cases who heard the evidence against ten policemen and two civilians when the jury reported at ten o'clock that it was hopelessly divided.

The jury reported at 10 o'clock this morning. The judge, who had been delayed in reaching court, arrived shortly before the jurors filed into the room. They had been out since 3:07 yesterday afternoon and appeared to be tired.

"Gentlemen, have you reached a verdict?" the judge asked. Henry A. Lauenstein of Bayonne, N. J., the foreman, replied: "I am sorry to say, Judge, we have not—we were unable to reach a verdict."

The men on trial charged with conspiracy to frustrate justice were: William F. Griffin, of Jersey City, alleged leader of the "bootlegging ring," Harry J. Stearns, councilman and chairman of the police committee of Weehawken; Captain Charles McNamee of the Hudson county boulevard police, two police lieutenants and seven patrolmen.

The jurors looked wan and haggard. When the foreman told the judge that the jurors were "hopelessly disagreed," the judge said: "Hopelessly? Don't you think that if you went out again for a short time you could arrive at a verdict?"

"No, your honor," the foreman replied. The foreman continued: "We have disagreed for fifteen hours and we cannot reach a verdict."

"Then under the circumstances and in view of your sincerity, I am compelled to discharge you from further service during the balance of the term of this court," the judge said.

It was understood the jury stood 9 to 3 for conviction when dismissed. The first vote was 8 to 4 for conviction. It was said, and later switched to 9 to 3 and remained thus until they finally decided they were hopelessly deadlocked.

The defendants in the main seemed to accept the disagreement as they would have a verdict of acquittal. Everyone of the ten police uniforms broke into smiles as did Stearns. Only Griffin, "mystery man" of the trial and characterized by state counsel as "king of the bootleggers" retained the calm that marked him throughout the trial. Not the slightest change of expression passed over his features when the disagreement was announced.

COUPLE HURT ONLY SLIGHTLY AS TRAIN HITS AUTO IN OSBORN

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Grice, of near Osborn, miraculously escaped death and received only slight injuries when the auto truck in which they were riding was completely smashed by Big Four passenger train No. 19, at a crossing one mile south of Osborn Wednesday afternoon. The train was due in Dayton at 12:54 o'clock.

Grice declared after the accident, that his truck was loaded with hay and he experienced difficulty in seeing up and down the tracks. He said that he usually took the precaution to have someone walk to the crossing and warn him of the approach of a locomotive, but advanced on the trucks Wednesday without the usual procedure.

Grice received cuts and bruises about the face and head and Mrs. Grice was severely injured in the leg. A physician's attention was not required.

The hay truck was totally demolished and hay was strewn for several yards about and on the crossing.

HERE IS DOROTHY ELLINGSON WHO KILLED MOTHER FOR LOVE OF "JAZZ"

DOROTHY ELLINGSON

San Francisco, Jan. 22.—"Dorothy Ellingson must serve life!" This was the demand made today by the prosecution in the case of the daughter of jazz, who sent a death bullet into her mother's head. "This is a murder case, not a case of ordinary juvenile delinquency," declared Dr. Theresa Meikle, assistant district attorney, selected to prosecute the girl.

"It will not be dealt with as an ordinary juvenile delinquency."

"The people will oppose any continuance. The place for this case is in the criminal courts and the sooner it reaches there the better. We demand a speedy trial."

Dorothy, weak from her ordeal of yesterday, when she appeared in police court and won her first fight in the courts by having her case transferred to the juvenile court, was scheduled to appear today before Juvenile Judge Murasky, where her fate may be definitely determined.

LETTERS SIGNED BY PET NAME AND TESTIMONY OF NURSE CHANGES COURSE OF DEATH PROBE

Chicago, Jan. 22.—Four letters signed "Darl" and a young graduate nurse who gave William D. Shepherd, foster father of William McCintock and chief beneficiary of the "millionaire orphan's" will, special attention when he was patient at the American hospital—these were the new elements of mystery and sensation which today entered the McCintock death probe.

And it was these decidedly important letters and this girl, it was revealed today, that was responsible for the recent postponement of the inquest which had been expected to bring a formal pronouncement that McCintock died from a typical text book case of typhoid fever.

The letters have not been made public but they are in the hands of Judge Olson, long time friend of the McCintock family, and chief instigator of the investigation into McCintock's death, almost the very day he was to have married Isabelle Pope. It is reported they announced Shepherd's "friendship" with the nurse must cease because he "has gone broke."

The nurse, Estelle Eleanor Gehling, admits this much but refuses to discuss them further.

Mrs. Gehling said she received numerous letters from Shepherd but saved four of them, the last of them which was written in September. This letter, according to her, said in effect

POSTAL SALARY INCREASE BILL BEFORE SENATE

Moses Renews Debate On Amended Rate Raising Provision

Washington, Jan. 22.—The $68,000,000 battle for higher postal wages, to be financed by increased postal rates, was renewed in the senate today when debate was opened on the Moses omnibus bill.

The new measure was called up by Senator Moses, Republican of New Hampshire, its author, to carry out a pledge given postal workers three weeks ago when the administration ranks of the senate voted to sustain President Coolidge's veto of the old postal salary bill. The rate increases would be only temporary, running merely from April 15 to February 15, 1926.

The new rate bill, drafted originally as a compromise, would meet the president's objections to salary increases by providing a means of raising the necessary revenue. With this accomplished, it was said the president will not oppose the salary increases.

In its present form, American newspaper and magazine publishers would make a portion of the increases but the greatest burden would be borne by the parcel post. The new rate schedule would levy slight increases on some kinds of second class mail, used exclusively by the publishers, but would also grant several decreases, especially in outlying areas.

The second class rates were divided into two classes, as in existing law, one affecting the advertising portions of publications and the other applying to the reading sections. The advertising rates would be increased for the first, second and fourth zones, with existing rates continued in the third and fifth zones while reductions would be granted for the sixth, seventh and eighth zones. The reading portion rates would eliminate all preferential classes and place under a flat rate of 14 cents a pound.

On first class mail, the only increases would apply to postal cards which hereafter would require a two cent stamp.

On third class mail, a weight limitation of four ounces would be placed, although the present rate would continue. This change, however, would drive all heavy parcels into the higher rates of the parcel post.

The burden of the wage increases, incidentally would be borne by the parcel post. Although existing rates would continue, a service of two cents would be levied on all parcels with additional excess rates on parcels weighing over five pounds.

A new "expedited delivery" service would be instituted in the parcel post—similar to the special delivery of first class mail—at cost of 25 cents per package. With the other increases it was expected the parcel post would yield up $30,000,000 additional income under the new rates.

About $12,000,000 new revenue would be raised by higher rates on all the special services such as money orders, postal insurance and C. O. D. service.

XENIA ON SECOND PREFERENTIAL LIST FOR ERECTION OF NEW GUARD ARMORIES IN 1925

Xenia is on the second preferential list of cities in the state, compiled out of a list of thirteen cities and towns where national guard organizations are housed unsatisfactorily at present, drawn up at a meeting in Columbus, Wednesday, of officers of the Ohio National Guard, seeking an amendment to the state armory law.

The meeting, presided over by Major General Benson W. Hough, was attended by division, brigade and regimental commanders. The officers attending the meeting gave unanimous approval to the proposed amendment of the state armory law, to be submitted to the present general assembly, which gives the adjutant general wider scope.

The two preferential lists of cities consists of six or seven names of cities and towns, which will be given preference with respect to the future armory program. It is thought possible that one or two cities or towns of the first group may be included this year.

The first preferential list is composed of Berea, Findlay, Greenfield, Springfield, Willoughby and Cincinnati and in the second, Xenia, Barberton, Lakewood, Middletown, Alliance, Mount Vernon and Greenville.

The bill, if passed, will provide for the expenditure of $20,000 to $45,000 for one and $20,000 for each additional organization quartered in an armory; also $60,000 for one and $25,000 additional for cavalry and artillery organizations equipped with horses. The law covering this phase of armory construction now is general.

Hope To Find Pay Dirt In Baseball Scandal Probe

By DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, Jan. 22.—Regardless of lamentations to the contrary, the local district attorney's office expects to strike pay dirt somewhere in its impending excavations in and around the Dolan-O'Connell scandal which rocked the baseball world last October.

Many seem to think that no additional light will be thrown on the situation by an official inquiry, that District Attorney Joab Banton will find his hands tied just as securely as were those of Judge Landis when the original probe was instituted. It is evident that the district attorney's office does not concur. It knows what it can do with witnesses when they are placed under oath and asked questions that require more illuminating answers than the mere affirmative or negative, as the case may be.

If, as some people seem to feel, Frank Frisch, Ross Young and George Kelly have guilty knowledge of O'Connell's attempt to bribe Heine Sand, the district attorney's office will be sufficiently inquisitive to discover just what these men know, if anything.

In this respect, local officials will find conditions for an inquiry far more favorable than did Landis. The judge could go so far and no farther. He could not place his witnesses under oath and if all of them saw fit to give the "don't remember" reply to his questions, he could have done nothing about it, except to oust those concerned from baseball. But that would have left the case in a more opaque condition than it is.

Of course, if nothing new is uncovered, O'Connell will be the only victim. On his own admission, he can be sent to jail and plastered with a heavy fine. This is a highly undesirable outcome. Baseball doesn't want it, the fans do not want it and I think I take no undue liberty in answering for O'Connell himself. He doesn't want it.

MEN HELD IN SPRINGFIELD IDENTIFIED AS SLAYERS OF HILLSBORO SURVEYOR

Youths Are John and Dan Boggs, Sons of Jackson, Ohio, Lumber Man—Bowersville Residents Held Identify Pair—Deny Guilt.

Jackson, O., Jan. 21.—John Boggs, 24, and his brother Dan Boggs, 21, held at Springfield, as suspects in the murder of Harry T. McGill, of Hillsboro, are sons of Augustus A. Boggs, former wealthy lumberman of this city.

The elder Boggs, who recently met financial reverses, is critically ill at his home here and has not been informed of the charge lodged against his sons.

"Frank and Donald Barnes, of Cleveland," held in Springfield, were positively identified Wednesday by four citizens of Hillsboro, as the pair of highwaymen who shot and instantly killed Harry T. McGill, deputy surveyor of Highland County and seriously wounded E. W. Lemon, merchant policeman of Hillsboro, after being arrested there Tuesday on a charge of attempted burglary.

Through Detective N. J. Fischer, Springfield, the young men were identified as John Boggs, 24, and Dan Boggs, 21, sons of Gus Boggs, of Jackson, O., former wealthy lumberman.

William Breakfield, of near Bowersville, was the first to identify the two men as the pair he had driven to Springfield under the misrepresentation that their car had broken down.

It was through the medium of radio that the two debonaire, immaculately dressed young men were traced, the auto recovered and the pair arrested in Springfield.

The two steadfastly deny all connection with the Hillsboro murder. They still maintain they were in Springfield to sell furniture polish, as they had originally declared when arrested on suspicion.

The men are charged with carrying concealed weapons in Springfield and were scheduled to be arraigned on that charge Thursday.

A special session of the Highland County Grand Jury will be called Friday, declared Prosecutor Broadmore, of Hillsboro, and an indictment charging the pair with murder is anticipated.

It became known, that although the pair may be turned over to the custody of Hillsboro police, they will not be lodged in the Hillsboro jail. They may be locked up at Washington C. H. it is said.

Information was obtained showing the boys were principally "knights of the road" engaged in selling furniture polish of their own manufacture but have had numerous other occupations. Formerly they were occupied at house to house photography. Both are married and each has one child.

The fact that they will be charged with the murder of the Hillsboro man, does not seem to effect them as they laughed and joked with police Wednesday night, while clinging to their original story.

Four residents of Bowersville, W. A. Breakfield, I. F. Stewart, F. A. Stewart and Miss Maude Mitchell, went to Springfield Wednesday afternoon and identified the pair as the two men who left a large red automobile, identified as owned by McGill, the slain county surveyor, at Breakfield's farm.

Breakfield took the men to the Stewart garage in Bowersville, where F. A. Stewart joined the party and went with them to Springfield. Examination of McGill's machine, disclosed a bullet hole through the top and another through the windshield, officials said.

Word from Hillsboro that feeling was at a high pitch against the pair caused the abandonment of the plan to take them to the Hillsboro jail.

PROBE OF XENIA INSTITUTION TO START IN 10 DAYS

Allege High Prices Paid
For Commodities at Home Here

Columbus, Jan. 22.—Investigation of conditions at the Soldiers' & Sailors' Orphans Home at Xenia, will center largely on charges of immorality, involving two officials connected with the institution, it was revealed here today.

The probe will get under way February 6 at Xenia, Senator L. T. Marshall announced, and will continue during recesses of the legislature so that it will not delay legislative business. Senator Marshall conferred with Attorney General Crabbe relative to legal aid the latter's department is directed to furnish the probers.

The investigation is directed against administration of the Home by Supt. Sylvius Garver. His wife, Mrs. Anna Noble Garver, is chief matron.

It was revealed today by Senator Marshall that Garver was recently allowed an opportunity to resign before the probe was instituted but took no advantage of the offer.

The probe will not be halted now, even if Garver should resign, Senator Marshall declared.

"Conditions at the home have been a stench in the public's nostrils for some time," he declared, "and I propose that there shall be a cleanup."

While graft charges are said to be included in the matters which will be sifted by the probers it was revealed that conditions are not serious in that regard.

"There are 800 children at the Home and it is the state's duty to educate them to useful citizenship. This cannot be done under such conditions now existing and we propose to correct these conditions," declared Senator Marshall.

Charges of graft, general mismanagement, mistreatment of inmates and immorality will be investigated by the special senate committee that will probe conditions at the Ohio Soldiers' & Sailors' Orphans' Home here it was announced in Columbus.

Plans for the probe recommended by Governor Vic Donahey were to go forward in the state senate Thursday and the committee investigation is expected to start within ten days. Charges contained in the report of Col. L. S. Connolly, Cleveland, Major Gen. Benson W. Hough, Cincinnati and Captain George W. Tool, Columbus, Ohio National Guard investigators, will be made the basis of the probe, it is said.

Although the details of these charges are being withheld, they are said to include complaints that supplies had been purchased for the institution at high prices exclusively from a Xenia dealer, including ice and fruit; that in some cases the same load of ice or same crate of fruit has been purchased two or three times; that two boys at the home were mistreated by an instructor and that certain employees at the institution have been illegally discharged as the result of "internal politics." Affidavits making these allegations are said to be in the hands of the investigators.

The resolution of the senate ordering the investigation authorizes the hearings to be held either in Columbus or Xenia, but it is expected that most of the evidence will be heard at the institution in this city. The resolution authorizes the committee to call upon the attorney general's office for legal counsel, compel presence of witnesses and examine all records of the institution from which information may be obtained.

The committee headed by Senator L. T. Marshall of this city, includes Senators Adair, Wooster, Waitt, Cleveland, Loughhead, Cincinnati and Lauby of Akron. Laurence M. Benedict, Columbus newspaper correspondent, said in his account Thursday: "Complaints regarding conditions at the Xenia Home have been made to every governor in the last fifteen years, but Governor Donahey is the first to ask for an investigation. The governor said yesterday in a message to the senate that in his opinion, based on allegations made to him, a thorough probe was needed."

Sylvius Garver, Republican, and an appointee of former Governor Harry L. Davis, said Wednesday he welcomed an investigation to clear the charges. Mr. Garver has been head of the institution four years and his wife, who is chief matron, is an ex-pupil of the institution.

RADIO OPERATORS SHOULD WATCH FOR SIGNALS SATURDAY

Philadelphia, January 22—In order that the test from Station WIP, Gimbel Brothers, on Saturday, January 24, during the Eclipse, may be an aid to the perfection of broadcasting, radio fans all over the country are asked to tune their receivers to 509 meters and note carefully just how the signals are received.

Beginning promptly at 7 a. m., Eastern Standard Time, Station WIP will "go on the air" with a program of orchestral music. During this program, one minute will be devoted to the broadcast of a buzzer signal. The buzzer will not be constant, and fans are asked to note whether it varies, as they receive it. This will determine the effect of the Solar Eclipse on the much discussed "Fading Problem."

Station 2LO, at London, England, will begin his broadcast on 365 meters at 7:15 a. m., Eastern Standard Time. The WIP-2LO schedule for the test is:

7:00 to 7:15—WIP.
7:15 to 7:30—2LO.
7:30 to 7:45—WIP.
7:45 to 8:00—2LO.
8:00 to 8:15—WIP.
8:15 to 8:30—2LO.
8:30 to 8:45—WIP.
8:45 to 9:00—2LO.
9:00 to 9:15—WIP.
9:15 to 9:30—2LO.

Tune your sets to WIP's wave length during the time set for their broadcast. Note accurately any peculiarity of transmission, and write WIP of your report. Tune in for 2LO during the time set for their broadcast. If you are successful in receiving their signals, notify Station WIP. Pay particular attention to the Buzzer Test from Station WIP. This will be given for one minute of each fifteen minute section. It will be easily audible and will give a fine check-up on the transmission.

You Can Quickly Limber Up Sore, Stiff, Swollen Joints

Even Chronic rheumatic swellings in knee, foot, ankles, arch, hips, elbow, shoulder or finger joints yield to the mighty powerful influence of JOINT-EASE.

It's here, right in town and every live druggist has it.

It's a low price remedy, to be sure, but that doesn't stop it from taking the kinks, lameness or torture out of your troubled joints.

Joint-Ease is the name, so called because it is compounded solely for the purpose of relieving all joint ailments.

Just rub it on the tormented, lame joints and in just a few seconds it will penetrate through skin and flesh straight down to the ligaments and tendons of the joints—right where the agony starts—Then blessed comfort comes quickly.

It absorbs instantly and is so clean that you can rub it on often and get thereby results much more quickly, when the joint is inflamed and the agony intense.

Being such a powerful counter-irritant, it cannot help bringing speedy and helpful results in congestion, sore throat, chest colds, lumbago and neuralgia much quicker than almost any remedy you can buy.

But you must remember that it is for joint afflictions that Joint-Ease is mostly dispensed, and its helpfulness will astonish you after all ordinary liniments and other treatments have failed. Sohn's Drug Store sell lots of it.—Adv.

THE FURNACE MYSTERY

Prosecutor King of Franklin County, has perseverance to commend him, if no other quality.

The prosecutor has announced that another grand jury will be given new evidence in the famous Bexley mystery, in which the body of the wife of the Rev. C. V. Sheatsley was found burned up in the furnace of their home.

If the prosecutor has new evidence of damaging quality, which it may be hoped that he has in order to clear this most baffling of mysteries, then he should be given encouragement in this latest effort to bring the solution to the surface.

If, however, the prosecutor is reviving the case for publicity purposes with no evidence of a tangible quantity on which a grand jury may act, he deserves censor. Unless facts are in his possession indicating a solution, it were better that the Bexley mystery remain so and be forgotten about as quickly as possible.

ECLIPSE

The sun and moon are going to connive Saturday morning, to show the old world something new in the way of astronomical wonders.

Science tells us that in certain parts of the United States, the light from the sun will be totally eclipsed so that cities are instructing the use of street lights, and farmers are planning to light up hen houses artificially to prevent the chickens from going to bed.

Scientists, much interested in the feature act of heavens, are urging all who are situated advantageously, geographically speaking, to be sure to look for the eclipse. Now then, it is truly wonderful that the sun and moon, by a peculiar coincidence in their positions in space, should come into a position that would result in the eclipse of one.

But to our rather unscientific mind, the most wonderful thing is that science is not only able to foretell this eclipse but to tell to the second when it will occur, and to the inch what part, and how much of the earth's surface will be shadowed.

We think the scientist, pointing out the wonder he has prophesied, is deserving of some of this attention himself.

LIFE'S CHAIN

Nearly all basic problems are as "old as the hills." A German scientist finds in an Egyptian tomb a divorce decree that was granted 2,000 years ago. It is the oldest known.

In those days they also had high cost of living, spendthrift governments and heavy taxes.

Life is a theatrical performance whose plot never changes. One generation of actors succeeds another in an endless chain. The play itself goes on, repeating over and over. Existence would become very monotonous if we lived several centuries.

Probably we should find ourselves back-tracking over the grounds. Ennui would come on and we would sigh for something new. Too great length of life would not be good.

In this connection we recall a short story we read some years ago. There was a man who became convinced that he was living his life around in a circle, to the office in the morning, back home at night, and to the same places at other times. He announced that he was going to quit it, and went away. He was gone for years, but the seed he had sown had found fertile soil in the mind of a nephew, we believe it was. So one day, the young man set out to remove his life from the circle. He went to South America. The first sound that greeted him when he reached the distant shores was that of a screeaky, wheezy steam piano. He went to see what it meant, the sound was so familiar, and there in that far away land he found his relative, who had started out years before to get himself out of the circle, running a merry go round.

So, as we go around the years—or as the years go around for us—we need to make them as cheerful and fruitful as possible where we are.—Tampa Times.

Still, let's hope for the best. The auto driver may not give any more attention to the cross-word stockings than to the ordinary variety.—Marion, O., Star.

A close observer says that girls who "interfere" should not wear light hose.—Newark, O., American-Tribune.

Imagine the number of runaways there would have been had the girls worn short skirts and plaid stockings in the old days when the horse was still supreme.—Columbus, O., Dispatch.

THE LAST THING AT NIGHT

I may forget to wind the clock or lock the kitchen door.
And I may go to bed and leave my books upon the floor,
Or when I come in very late and overtired, I may

I tiptoe to the children's room to see

Men! Don't Come Home
Fagged Out by
Hard Work

DOCTORS say that in an enormous number of cases when men come home physically and mentally "all in," nervous and cranky, the real cause is not hard work, but thin, pale, watery blood, deficient in strength-giving iron. Once this iron is restored to the blood it is often astonishing how quickly these men gain new strength, nerve force and endurance.

But be sure the iron you take is organic iron—Nuxated Iron—and not the old-fashioned liquid medicines and pills made by the action of powerful acids on ordinary mineral iron. Nuxated Iron is a natural organic iron, like the iron in your own blood, and like that it is easily absorbed. Does not hurt teeth or upset the stomach. So remarkable are the effects of Nuxated Iron that thousands of weak, nervous, fagged-out men, who have often increased their strength, energy, and endurance in only two weeks' time. Try Nuxated Iron just two weeks. Money back if not delighted. But make certain you get genuine guaranteed Nuxated Iron tablets with the letters N-I on every tablet. At all

how seems to me
I couldn't go to sleep myself, unless I'd been to see
That pair of youngsters safely tucked within their little beds
And placed their wandering pillows
once again beneath their heads.
And straightened out their little feet and chuckled with delight
To hear them sleepily proclaim that they're all right.

I've found them tangled in their sheets, I've found them wrong
way to,
There's nothing in their sleep, it seems, those youngsters will not do;
I've found their bedclothes on the floor, I've caught them clinging
fast
To books and dolls with which they'd played when sleep had come at
last;
And looking down on them I've thought; life holds no fairer
sight
Than sleeping little youngsters showing signs that they're all right.

I lift their little heavy forms and
straighten out their arms.
And sometimes stand admiringly to dote upon their charms;
I take them up and put them down
and rearrange their beds
And always bend to kiss their cheeks
and stroke their curly heads;
Then knowing they are snug and
warm I switch away the light
And say: "I'm ready now to sleep, for they're all right!"

THE RECORD

Of Ohio Building, Loan and Savings Companies

Total assets now nearing One Billion dollars ---the result of systematic saving by a million thrifty Ohioans.

One hundred thousand Ohio families put into homes of their own during the last two years.

Provided employment during 1924 for several hundred thousand workmen engaged in the building industry.

Put millions of dollars into circulation for the benefit of the manufacturer, the merchant, the professional man, the laboring man and the farmer.

Save Where Your Money Is Safe

This is National Thrift Week. It is also the beginning of a new year. Plan to lay away something regularly during 1925. Save with a building, loan and savings company. Long experience has proven that money placed with these institutions has been ready when needed ---dollar for dollar with accrued earnings.

Building, loan and savings companies cannot speculate with their funds. The law permits them to loan only on first mortgage security on real estate. They are under strict state supervision; are examined regularly by state examiners; their officers are bonded and their funds are protected by various forms of insurance.

Building, loan and savings company dollars are kept in this community. They create prosperity for the local business man; the local working man and the neighboring farmer. These institutions pay a return, which, in the estimation of their officers, is the highest that can be paid compatible with absolute safety.

THRIFT DISPLAYED BY PRIZE WINNER

The following story is typical of the indications of the effectiveness of the teaching of thrift now being done in the city schools, it is said.

Russell Barr, a student of Central Junior High School was sent uptown on an errand. He met a friend near Moser's Shoe Store, who suggested to him to look at the display of pennies in the window. Russell had read about the prize of a ten dollar gold piece offered to the one who could guess the nearest number of pennies. The ten dollar gold piece was won by Russell on his guess of 3,313 pennies.

The gold piece was brought to school by the proud winner and deposited in the school savings bank. Since the schools are now conducting a savings contest Russell was happy to help his school, Junior High, by depositing his prize.

YELLOW SPRINGS

One of the most attractive banquets was held Thursday evening in the dining hall of the Methodist Church, under the auspices of the Epworth League. The hall was beautifully decorated in red and white. The tables were lighted with red candles. Mr. W. U. Mantle, President of the League was toastmaster. He introduced the speakers, Prof. L. R. Gibbs, who spoke on "Gone Forever" and Prof. C. S. Adams whose subject was "Tempus Fugit." Prof. Gibbs and Prof. Adams are instructors of Antioch College and the League is to be congratulated on having such fine speakers on their program. Misses Elizabeth and Virginia Moorman and Erma Denison entertained the guests with several lovely vocal selections. A three course dinner was served to one hundred and forty guests. Every one had such a delightful evening that many have expressed a desire that the League serve another banquet real soon.

At the Library Club meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. E. Morgan the following officers for the year were elected: president, Miss Della Hardman; vice president, Mrs. Archie Dean; secretary, Miss Mamie Baker; treasurer, Miss May Garrison; trustees, Mrs. Charles Carr and Miss Garrison.

The Parent-Teacher's Association will meet in the High School building Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Antioch College broadcast a concert by the Wittenberg school of Music, Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. This concert will be directed by Prof. Frederick Lewis Bach of Wittenberg College.

Rev. C. H. White, pastor of the Presbyterian Church is conducting a series of sermons which began Sunday, January 11 and will end March.

COUGHS OR COLDS BANISHED BY NEW MEDICINAL FOOD

To be rid of coughs and colds once and for all, strike at the cause. Many local people are banishing all this suffering and annoyance by taking a new medicinal food called Coco Cod, pure Norwegian cod liver oil with the taste of rich cocoa.

Doctors are prescribing Coco Cod for young and old who are run-down, nervous and lacking in vital energy. Such folks, they contend, are under-nourished—liable to fall easy prey to coughs, colds or more serious ailments such as pneumonia, influenza, asthma.

Coco Cod arms you with overwhelming energy and vital force that enables you to defy common ills. It sends rich, red blood tingling through your veins. You feel and act years younger because you're alive in every fibre.

Children and adults who cannot take ordinary cod liver oil, find Coco Cod delightful and thrive on it.

Good druggists everywhere have Coco Cod, the new, easy-to-take cod liver oil with the rich cocoa taste—Adv.

GET AT THE CAUSE!

Many Xenia Folks Are Showing How to Avoid Needless Suffering.

There's nothing more annoying than kidney weakness or inability to properly control the kidney secretions. Night and day alike, the sufferer is tormented and what with the burning and scalding, the attendant headache, dizziness, life is indeed a burden. Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys—have brought peace and comfort to many Xenia people. Profit by this Xenia resident's experience:

E. L. Richards, prop. barber shop, 514 W. Second St., says: "My back was sore and ached constantly. Mornings my back and shoulders were so lame and stiff, I could hardly move. My back was weak and it was hard to stand any length of time. When I stooped I got sharp pains through my back. I had to get up several times at night to pass the kidney secretions. Doan's Pills relieved me of the pains in my back and my kidneys became normal." 60c. at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Easy Way to Break Severest Cough

No matter how long you have had a persistent, weakening cough—no matter how many remedies you have tried without success—you can usually get relief instantly, and often relieve the entire cough condition in 24 hours, by a very simple method. The method is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take one teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The prompt relief seems almost magical, and the quickness with which the whole cough condition disappears is often simply amazing. There is nothing better for coughs, chest colds, bronchitis, bronchial asthma, hoarseness, and almost every throat irritation. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

Facts About Taxes on Cigarettes

TO the general public, we believe it will be surprising to learn that nearly half of what they pay for cigarettes goes to the government for taxes.

The internal revenue stamp on a package of twenty Lucky Strike cigarettes costs you six cents. On a 75c tin of one hundred the revenue stamp costs you thirty cents.

So nearly one-half of what you pay for cigarettes is spent by you for taxes.

This is certainly the heaviest tax on an article of daily and universal consumption.

The Tobacco Industry and Taxes

The aggregate tax paid by the tobacco business is with one exception, income taxes, the largest item of internal revenue the federal government receives. Last (fiscal) year it amounted to $309,014,050.84.

Of this enormous amount of money the cigarette industry paid $182,715,735.93, or nearly two-thirds of the total tax paid by the entire tobacco business.

We believe you will appreciate that when nearly fifty cents of every dollar paid by you for cigarettes goes to the government, you must receive in cigarettes a value in return for your money that is rarely given in any commodity.

That the public appreciates this great value is shown by the enormous increase in the consumption of cigarettes.

Our reasons for this tax free offer

We know this offer induces men to try Lucky Strikes—it "Wins More Friends."

We know that a large percentage of those who get acquainted with Lucky Strikes adopt them.

This isn't philanthropy nor propaganda—just good business, as you'll agree.

The offer is limited. We cannot afford to keep it up.

We make it generous, to attract attention.

Super-quality

Only by immense volume can we produce such an aristocratic cigarette as Lucky Strike at such a democratic price.

Its quality is supreme because it has that costly extra process, toasting, which improves the flavor and adds to the taste of even the finest tobacco that are used in Lucky Strikes.

Cleanliness and Care in Manufacture

Every Lucky Strike factory is a model of sanitation. Read how Alfred W. McCann, the noted food expert, describes one of our factories: "White walls and ceilings, floors as clean as freshly chiseled marble, cutting machines and wrapping machines that take away from the human hand all detail and leave nothing to the human supervision but the watchfulness of trained eyes."

We know a trial will make you a permanent customer of ours.

SEVEN INJURED AS BOB SLED SKIDS AT SPRING VALLEY

Arnold, Drowes, principal of Spring Valley High School, is in McClellan Hospital, this city, with a fractured left leg and suffering from severe bruises and several young people of Spring Valley are nursing painful injuries, as the result of a coasting accident, in Spring Valley, Wednesday night.

The injured people were members of a coasting party on the hill on Cincinnati Pike, in Spring Valley. About ten persons were coasting on the bob-sled, guided by Ernest Kneeb. The coasting began at the cemetery at the top of the hill and the parties would coast to the railroad tracks. It is thought that the party on the bob-sled was too heavy to guide the sled properly, and when midway down the hill, at a turn in the road, the sled skidded off the path and struck an iron railing and stone steps in front of Harlan Bargley's home.

Mr. Drowes' injury proved to be the most serious. Robert Crites, 10, had his nose crushed and his face badly cut and bruised. Ernest Reeves' foot was crushed when the sled struck the railing. Other injured persons were Earl Queary, face cut; Joe LaSprance, face cut; Leon Mills, foot and face cut; and Lawrence Vandeman, face badly scratched.

The parent-teacher association meeting was held at the Community House on Thursday evening which was a splendid one, Judge Clevenger having spoken very interestingly at this time.

Several from this place are attending the revival services at the M. P. Church in Paintersville. Rev. Bertha Day pastor of the Friends Church in Jamestown is assisting in these meetings.

Why Stay Fat? You Can Reduce

The answer of most fat people is that it is too hard, too troublesome and too dangerous to force the weight down. Marmola Prescription Tablets overcome all these difficulties. They are pleasant to take, entail no dieting or exercise, and have the added advantage of cheapness. A box is sold at one dollar by all druggists the world over, or send the price direct to the Marmola Co., General Motors Bldg., Detroit Mich. Now that you know this, you have no excuse for being fat. You can reduce steadily and easily without going through long stages of tiresome exercise and starvation diet with fear of bad effects. Get a box and start getting slender now.

INTERNATIONAL TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION BUYS MAGNIFICENT INDIANAPOLIS RESIDENCE FOR NEW HEADQUARTERS BUILDING

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22—Stately and spacious drawing rooms, halls and the high rental rates prevailing in the business district. The new headquarters will afford greater room at less cost and also offers a sound investment they said. Members of the union's executive council, who consummated the purchase, were: James M. Lynch, president; J. W. Hays, secretary-treasurer; Seth R. Brown, first vice-president; Austin Hewson, second vice-president; Charles N. Smith and Hugo Miller.

The Typographical Union is one of the wealthiest trade unions and has about $5,000,000 of its funds invested in bonds. It also has a $3,500,000 investment in the Union Printers' Home at Colorado Springs, Colo., to which an extensive addition was made last year.

"It has ever been a policy of the Typographical Union to be very conservative in the investment of union funds," said Mr. Lynch. "For that reason the organization has confined itself to purchase of government and municipal bonds in the past. In this case, however, it became necessary to acquire our own headquarters property or suffer a loss through exorbitant rent. We bought at a bargain and I am reliably advised that our new investment will prove one of the most profitable we have ever had. The investment can be reduced to a comparatively small sum at any by sale of surplus land."

Beside its trade regulation activities and the Union Printers' Home, the union maintains an old-age pension system, mortuary benefits and a expansion of the organization's business and the high rental rates prevailing in the business district. department of apprentice education, all of which are administered at headquarters.

A library of books on printing and related subjects will be accumulated after the new headquarters are opened.

The International Typographical Union, officials say, is the development of an organization idea nearly as old as the printing art, itself. Guilds were formed by the early printers of the fifteenth century and similar societies have existed practically continuously since, each having for its smallest unit, the "chapel" of each printing shop. The National Typographical Union was organized at a convention in Cincinnati, O., in 1852, and the name was changed to International Typographical Union of North America in 1869. Headquarters have been maintained in Indianapolis since 1888.

IT'S GREAT TO PAY TAXES

I'm not a man of money, I've got one benzine rig, and yet I'm always sunny and will not try to run away from taxes my heifers and my flaxes, my turnips and my axes, my woodpile and my pig.

I own a jersey kitten I bought in '94 that used to be quite fittin' and catch mice by the score. But now he is rheumatic and bats are in his attic; he's getting quite erratic and all the day does snore. He isn't worth a dollar, he isn't worth a dime, and yet he wore the collar of fighter in his prime; so the no mice he carries, no teeth to bite he carries, he's long since done his share, he's listed every time.

My flivver is a jigger that long has had the croup, there's rust holes in its figure, it is not worth a whoop; it used to be a doodle, outran the whole caboodle; now, like a chicken noodle, it's always in the soup. I'd trade it for a rifle, I'd trade it for a hat; it isn't worth a trifle, I'd trade it for a cat. But wide my heart relaxes when I must pay my taxes, it's worth one hundred axes. I list it then for that.

My home is not a dandy, the rugs are faded out; my jugs once full of brandy, just now are full of trout. But I'm a cheerful chappie, I'm always bright and happy, and so I make it snappy and loud for taxes about. For nowhere on this planet does money buy so much; no matter where you span it, you'll always find it such. Nowhere will money net us the things that taxes get us, so let us plant our lettuce and list to beat the Dutch.

TERRIBLE!

A Yellow Springs fellow named Pride,

For speed his flivver once tried;

The afternoon freight

Was ten minutes late—

And that is the reason he died.

LIMA MYSTERY MAN IS NOW IDENTIFIED

Lima, O., Jan. 21.—Lima's mystery man has been identified. He is Felix Kreger, 45, of Erie, Michigan, and Toledo.

Positive identification was established today by Miss Marie Dittell of Toledo, whose name was found among papers in the dead man's possession. However, the cause of Kreger's death remains just as much of a mystery as it did yesterday before the coroner's inquest.

Kreger was found Sunday night in a rooming house in an unconscious condition. There were no marks of identification on his person, no labels on his clothing and no means of telling who he was or where he came from.

In his pockets police found $400 in bills.

Doctors who examined Kreger were unable to tell the cause of his peculiar ailment. He never regained consciousness and died Monday morning. In his rooming place located the names of two women on a scrap of paper. One of them, Miss Dittell, came to Lima last night and early today identified Kreger.

COURT NEWS

GIVEN DAMAGES

C. C. Hale has been awarded $400 damages in Common Pleas Court against Daniel A. Donovan in the damage suit in which the former was plaintiff. The court overruled a motion for a new trial filed by the defendant.

CONTESTS WILL

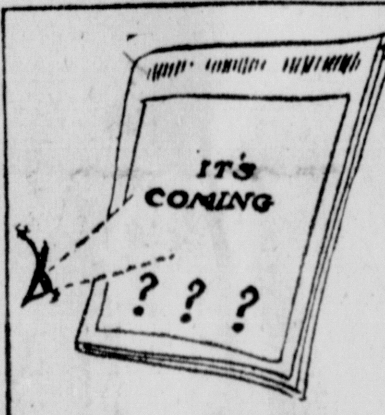

Mary Ann Stutsman has filed suit in Common Pleas Court against William E. Watson, as executor of the will of Owen Stutsman, deceased, Henry Bose, Joseph C. Watson, Ocea M. Watson and Olea L. Lotter to contest the alleged last will of her husband, Owen Stutsman, which has been admitted to Probate.

The plaintiff claims that her husband died leaving her sole heir, and that the papers admitted to Probate purporting to be the last will of her husband which name the defendants as the several heirs of the deceased, is not the last will.

The plaintiff asks that these papers be set aside. Marcus Shoup and Frank Dean are attorneys for the plaintiff.

MONEY AT WORK

Brief but Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds and Investments

IS THIS GOOD ADVERTISING?

The skillful advertising man uses five mechanical factors in shaping an ad, just as a cabinet maker uses his tools to make a fine piece of furniture.

Here are the five factors which a brief discussion of each:

1. Magnitude—the amount of space allotted to an ad. This is called the most potent factor in an ad by many authorities.

2. Intensity—the color or shading of the ad which either pleases, repels, or commands the attention of the eye.

3. Motion—this is a mechanical trick to interest the muscles of the eye. This device has been splendidly used by one of the bathing suit manufacturers recently.

4. Contrast—this is usually accomplished in newspaper advertising by contrasting black headline type with small, light body type, light illustrations, or white space.

5. Position—rear covers, front inside covers and other preferred positions are naturally desirable, because the habits and mechanical actions of the reader tend to look at these spaces first.

ADVENTISTS DENY CONNECTION WITH PROPHECIED "END"

Washington, D. C. Jan. 22.—In view of the approaching date of February 6, set by some for the end of the world, the executive committee of the Seventh-day Adventists denomination at their headquarters in this city has put on record the following repudiation:

"WHEREAS, A group of people having no connection with the Seventh-day Adventist church have assumed the name of this organization, and have set a date for Christ's second advent, announcing February 6, 1925, as the time for this event, we hereby place officially on record in the minutes of our General Conference our repudiation of all time-setting, and record our protest against connecting the name "Seventh-day Adventists" with this propaganda. Anew we declare to the public that throughout our history our witness to the signs of times that show Christ's second coming near at hand, has ever been based on the Scriptural teaching that "of that day and hour knoweth no man."

MODISH MITZI—They Looked Their Best

By Jay V. Jay

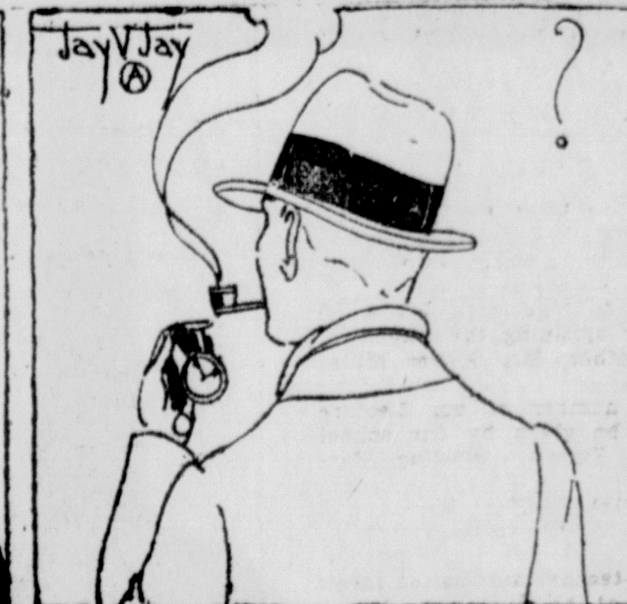

The last look in the mirror convinces Mitzi that her costume is quite all right. Her wrap has fur cuffs and a velvet choker collar. The collar matches her hat. The hat is turban like. We hope the young man with whom she is to lunch will appreciate Mitzi. We think he does. He has the enthusiasm.

Polly, later in the day, is getting ready to have tea with the same young man. She is putting on the finishing touches, painting the lily as it were. Her fur coat is short and has bell sleeves. Her kasha skirt is trimmed with the same fur. Very neat, Polly!

Dora has also done her best, her hat with its turned up brim is very smart. Her wrap has a stand up collar which can be fastened very comfortably and at the same time very smartly under the chin. She, too, has an engagement to dine with the before-mentioned young man.

And here is the young man. It has taken some management but he has been on time for every appointment. We're sorry that he won't show his face to the rest of Mitzi's friends. More about him later.

ECONOMIC ANALYSIS FOR TRADE BENEFIT STARTED UNDERWAY

Washington, Jan. 22.—A nationwide economic analysis for the benefit of domestic trade has been launched by the department of commerce.

This was announced today by A. Heath Onthank, chief of the domestic commerce division, who said that the first survey in progress centers in Philadelphia, while the second will include the markets of Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama and Florida.

Later in the year, territory surrounding the big centers of population will be analyzed. The entire program will embrace New England, New York, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, New Orleans, the southwest, San Francisco and Seattle districts.

"The general aim of the department is to put all wholesale and retail business on a scientific basis and to furnish business men with accurate information as to their potential markets and the types of commodities required in these markets," Onthank told International News Service. "The result will be a big cut in marketing costs, shorter hauls, for freight, quicker delivery of goods, more satisfactory service and lower prices to the consumer and a reduction in transportation congestion at the rush seasons."

GETTING UP NIGHTS

Tells you there is danger ahead. A health bladder does not act at night. J. H. Dorton, W. Graham, Va., says: "I had to get up seven or eight times at night for forty years. I thought it was my age. After taking Lithiated Buchu a short time, I am alright." Lithiated Buchu cleanses the bladder as Epsom Salts do the bowels, thereby relieving irritation, driving out foreign matter and neutralizing excessive acids. These are the causes of unnatural action of the bladder at night. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) is not a cheap medicine. The tablets cost 2 cents each. Sold at all leading drug stores or Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio Locally at Sayre and Hemphill. Adv.

Speaks to Women Of Middle Age

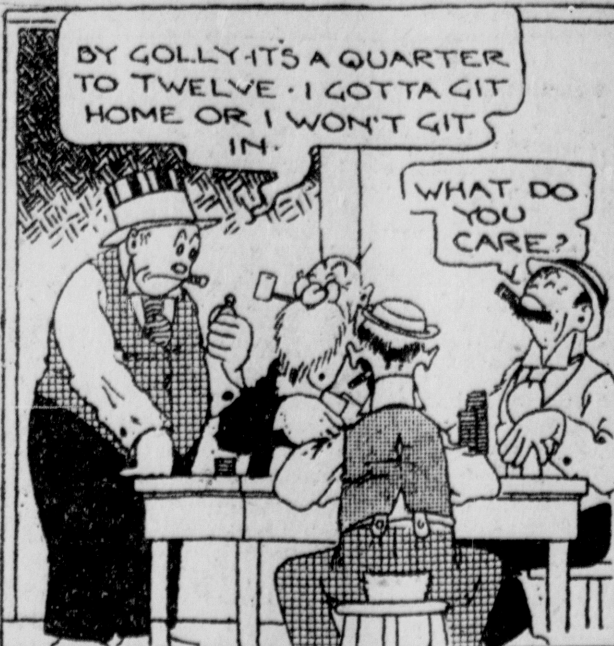

MRS. NELLIE LEARY

"I think every woman needs something to help her thru middle age and I know of nothing better than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," said Mrs. Nellie Leary of 1407 Cooper St., Toledo. "When I reached this critical period of life I began to suffer as most women do. I had dizzy spells and hot flashes, grew weak and nervous, felt tired and worn out all the time and had a heavy draggy feeling. But after I started taking the 'Favorite Prescription' I had no more trouble—just got along fine—no more suffering or distress. I was a strong, healthy woman, thanks to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription." WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED

PATRICIA CLEVE has become estranged from her husband.

ANDREW CLEVE, who seems to feel that his young wife exists only to help entertain his business friends. He goes abroad, after Patricia has insisted that she will live differently or leave him. She visits her sister.

CAROL WILLOUGHBY, and finds herself enrolled to help Carol's husband.

KEITH WILLOUGHBY, in his efforts to interest

GREGORY HEWITT, a famous financier, in his affairs. Hewitt falls in love with Patricia, and for Keith's sake she cannot refuse to join a western camping trip arranged by him.

TODAY'S INSTALLMENT

XLI—HER HUSBAND'S ULTIMATUM

THE next few days Patricia was only vaguely conscious of what was going on around her. She would hear scraps of whispered consultations and then she would be moved—by wagon, by motor finally by train.

There was no pain; only a sort of numbness and heaviness, broken occasionally by the sympathetic flutterings of Carol and the tender solicitude of Hewitt.

But the doctor never allowed them around her long, saying the least disturbance seemed to make her nervous, and Pat couldn't help smiling as she realized how she took advantage of this chance to be alone.

A day out of Chicago she found that she was able to sit up and take an interest in the scenes they were passing through. The doctor let the others come and sit with her awhile in her drawing room, and to celebrate the occasion Hewitt telegraphed ahead and had flowers awaiting Pat at every stop of any importance.

"I'll wager they never heard of orchids in Abbotville," Keith insisted, "until Hewitt ordered them."

"Thought there must be a royal funeral on the train," Hewitt added laughingly, "so the whole town came down to get a peek at it."

Patricia liked the way he disclaimed all honor of drawing a crowd of curious people to the station to see him and his magnificent private car. She liked many things about him; how unfortunate that she did not love him.

She thought a great deal about Andrew during that trip. She couldn't give him up, and yet she couldn't go back to things as they were. She wished that there were some way that she could send a message to him. If he only knew of her accident he would come to her. And yet she couldn't ask Hewitt to do it for her. He had done so much for her—and he believed, of course, that she and Andrew were hopelessly estranged.

She wondered a few days later as she languidly surveyed the rooftops from the sun parlor of the hospital where she had been taken if that weren't true! Each day when Carol came she looked up hopefully, but there was no word from Andrew.

Finally a cablegram came, and Patricia's fingers shook as she opened it. Eagerly she read, "Returning Berengaria tenth, meet me New York," and sunk back into the pillows, her eyes wet with tears.

Not a word of endearment from him—and Andrew wasn't a man to economize just because of a heavy cable rate. No, he was giving her orders to return. This was his ultimatum, she saw clearly enough; she could come back now to things as they were, or stay away.

"What does it say?" Carol broke in on her muddled train of thought to ask. "Can't I send an answer for you? Wait a minute and I'll get a pencil and paper and take it down. Did Andrew get my cablegram about your accident? I sent one to his hotel in London," she babbled on as unconcerned as though her sister's house were not falling down on her head, with this cablegram the keystone that would hold it up or let it crash.

"Just cable that I cannot meet him in New York," Pat instructed her. "And don't say why. I'll explain everything in a letter so that he will get it on his arrival."

"But, Patricia, what are you going to do? You don't seem very happy married to Andrew, and yet I don't believe you really want to marry Gregory Hewitt? Forgive me for intruding, but I would so like to help. Keith and I are so happy that I just cannot bear to think—"

With a wry smile Pat surveyed Carol transformed from the little sparrow of a few weeks before to a modish, alert looking girl. Keith was attentive to her nowadays. Why was it she could influence other men so much and yet not her own husband.

And as Carol left her, Pat sunk back in the pillows of her wheelchair prayerfully thanking Providence that she was physically unable to get up and go to meet Andrew. For she knew that it was an unwise thing to do—and yet she wanted so much to go.
